Dear Board of Directors:

I have prepared the enclosed returns from information provided by you without verification or audit. I suggest that you examine these returns carefully to fully acquaint yourself with all items contained therein to ensure that there are no omissions or misstatements. Attached to each return is an instruction sheet for signing and filing. Please follow those instructions carefully.

I will use my judgement to resolve questions in your favor where a tax law is unclear if there is a reasonable justification for doing so. Whenever I am aware that a possibly applicable tax law is unclear or that there are conflicting interpretations of the law by authorities, I will explain the possible positions that may be taken on your return. I will follow whatever position you request, so long as it is consistent with the Internal Revenue Code and regulations. If the IRS should later contest the position taken, there may be an assessment of additional tax plus interest and penalties. I assume no liability for any such additional tax, penalties or assessments.

It is your responsibility to maintain, in your records, the documentation necessary to support the data used in preparing your tax returns, including but not limited to the auto, travel, entertainment, and related expenses and the required documents to support charitable contributions. Required documentation includes business purpose, amount, date, place of occurrence, and number of miles driven for auto expenses. Charitable contribution receipts must show the organization's name, tax i.d. number, date, amount given, and anything you received in return. You understand that I am not responsible for IRS disallowance of doubtful deductions unsupported by adequate documentation. Corporations are required to pay officers a reasonable salary. I have advised you to do so and cannot be responsible for any reclassification by the IRS regarding reasonable wages.

Unless requested by you otherwise, I will check the box on your tax return that gives me authorization to discuss your tax return with the IRS. This authorization is limited to providing information for that specific tax return and will expire one year after the due date of the return.

The law provides for a penalty to be imposed where taxpayers make a substantial understatement of their tax liability. Taxpayers can avoid all or part of the penalty by showing (1) they acted in good faith, (2) the understatement was based on substantial authority, or (3) that the relevant facts affecting the item's tax treatment were adequately disclosed on the return. You agree to advise me if you wish disclosure to be made in your returns or if you wish further research to be performed to determine if substantial authority exists for your position.

Fees for my services will be at my standard rate and any out-of-pocket expenses. Payment for tax services are due upon delivery of the tax return, I cannot release tax returns without payment. I reserve the right to stop work on any account that is 30 days past due.

Enclosed is any material you furnished for use in preparing the returns. If the returns are examined, requests may be made for supporting documentation. Therefore, I recommend that you retain all pertinent records for at least seven years.

In order that I may properly advise you of tax considerations, please keep me informed of any significant changes in your financial affairs or of any correspondence received from taxing authorities. If you have any questions, or if I can be of assistance in any way, please call.
Sincerely,

Nikki Hewitt, CPA
